TFW

Dear Ms. Quinn

It was stated to me in a letter that you sent to me on Oct. 30 2008, that I had abandon my idea for removable shelving for "Rolling Mailing Containers." In effect this is not true. In an earlier letter you sent to me, you stated that I fully did not understand how to file a patent application. Also, that I would need to find a patent attorney to help me with my application. As you know with these hard times, I at present, can not afford a patent attorney. Until I'm able to. How do I keep my idea alive?

Thank you, Robert James Wroten
